

Logistic English Course, from Level B1

---

Here are possible topics for a Logistics English course:

Introduction to logistics:

- Requirements, describe the workplace, jobs in logistics,
- Talking about work processes, regular activities

Logistic services:

- Logistics acronyms / abbreviations, sell service, 3PL provider,
- Explain online service, value-added services, services with added value

Inventory management and procurement:

- Inventory management, the passive, continuous supply of goods, according to
- Asking opinions, expressing your own opinion, posting vacancies, making suggestions, agreeing

Transport options:

- Transport and transportation equipment, adjectives, container types, comparisons
- draw, describe types of goods, properties

Planning and arranging transport:

- Transport options, make inquiries, dimensions, alternatives
- offer / recommend offers, numbers, dimensions and weight

Sending goods:

- Marking, explaining how something is done, loading, prepositions
- Shipping notice, talking about shipping problems, shipping instructions

Warehousing:

- Machines in warehousing, the passive with modal verbs, warehouses,
- talk about improvements, modern warehousing, describe a process

Documentation and finance:

- International delivery documents, apologize, import instructions, by and
- until, payment methods, dealing with payments and errors

Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEF)

---

ADVANCED LEVEL	C2	At the end of level C2 you can understand and use colloquial and idiomatic expressions and use the language for challenging, academic contexts both orally and in writing.
	C1	At the end of level C1, you can lead complex conversations spontaneously and effortlessly, understand technical articles and technical instructions, express yourself in written form clearly and precisely at an adequate language level.
INTERMEDIATE LEVEL	B2	At the end of level B2 you can follow longer contributions on abstract topics and understand news broadcasts. Orally you can communicate spontaneously and fluently and in writing you can comment on content personally and formally content.
	B1	At the end of level B1 you can understand the essentials of a discussion when clear standard language is used and when familiar, concrete content is used. You can cope with most everyday situations, report on experiences and justify opinions.
ELEMENTARY LEVEL	A2	At the end of level A2 you will be able to understand frequently used expressions, when it has to do with simple information about daily life such as shopping, work, and family. You can describe your circumstances and things in simple terms and describe everyday life.
	A1	At the end of level A1 you will be able to understand and use familiar expressions and simple sentences. You can introduce yourself, communicate information to persons and communicate in a simple way when a partner speaks slowly and is ready to help.